A number of suggestions have been made regarding the nature of permenent memorials, among them a proposal that a monument in the form of a water gate be erected on the American and Caradian

sides of the Detroit river, at Decroit, On account of the magnitude of the un-dertaking the national committee has found it necessary to organize far in ad-vance of the celebration, which will bevance of the celebration, which will begin February 17, 1915, and extend into the summer, coming to a close with ceremonial exercises at San Francisco.
